Message from Chairman and Managing Director

It is with great pleasure to bring out 1st Activity Report 2022 - 2024 w.r.to Navarupantar Children Home. The Home dedicated to serve the causes of Special Need Children. This report abridges our collective effort over the year, highlighting the remarkable strides we have made in our mission to empower and uplift the most marginalised communities with special reference to children with disabilities.

The seed was sown on December 6, 2022. Like all seeds, it has taken years to grow and become fruit-bearing, reaching out to 12 children with special disabilities. Most of the children at our Home are orphan, abandoned, surrendered, rejected, abused suffering from unimaginable hardships with disabilities. At the Home, we nurture, feed, clothe, comfort and treat children medically to the best of our capacities. It is to put in record that we are humbly trying our best to make our Children Home highly child-friendly with the help and support extended by various stakeholders.

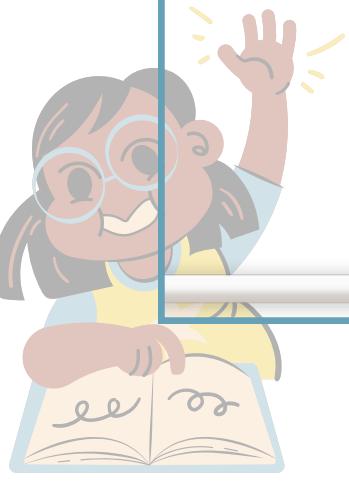

I take this opportunity to extend our profound gratitude to our donors, corporate sponsors, supporters and partners for their continued and consistent support extended to Children Home. Also, I sincerely acknowledge your trust in Navarupantar Children Home as well as your generous contributions which have been instrumental into our ability to create positive change in the marginalised communities that we serve. I extend my heartfelt appreciation to the dedicated child care team, whose passion and dedication stood as the driving force behind our achievements. I would also like to express my appreciation and thanks to the Directors of FISS and the staff members for their whole hearted support in the smooth running of the Children Home leading to attending a special social service of acute need.

I wish Navarupantar Children Home a great success in the future.

The Centre for Social Development (CSD) deals with the multiple social dimensions which can bring about equity, justice, peace, and well-being in a fast changing Society. Children with disabilities are the most vulnerable group and need special attention. The special children refer to those individuals who require assistance for disabilities that may be medical, mental or psychological. Special children include autism, asperger syndrome, cerebral palsy, dyslexia, dysgraphia, blindness, deafness, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), cystic fibrosis, etc. A special needs child may require alternative approaches to education that not only accommodate their conditions but also work toward creating ways for them to further their own capacity to learn and develop.

To address the problems and challenges of these children or special group, Foundation for Integrated Support and Solution (FISS), has started the Special Home at Tinsukia District for development of physical, mental, emotional, and psychological health of these needy children. FISS has registered under Section 41 (1) of The Juvenile Justice (Care & Protection of Children) Act, 2015 for a period of five (5) years and in this regard, FISS has inaugurated Navarupantar Home for Special Need Children in Doomdooma, P.O- Rupaisiding, Dist- Tinsukia, Assam, 786153 on 6th December 2022.

Welcome to Navarupantar Home

The Navarupantar Home for Special Need Children inaugurated on December 6, 2022. It provides shelter for underprivileged, orphaned, and semi-orphaned children ages 6-18 years. With a total capacity of 25, it initially started with 4 children and now provides shelter to 12 children till date. Navarupantar meets the children's needs for food, clothing, education, medical care, and support.

The home is located at Rupaisiding, Kako Road, Doomdooma, Tinsukia district of Assam. The place is approximately 500 km from the state capital and 30 km from Tinsukia township, the district headquarter. With utmost care and empathy, it provides physical, moral, and psychological assistance to children with disabilities to help them join mainstream society. Operating under the Juvenile Justice Act, children are referred by the Child Welfare Committee (CWCs), Tinsukia. Navarupantar aims to be a safe, nurturing home where these vulnerable youths can thrive.

Our children have limitations that they were born with but they ability rather than disability. They've been further traumatized through rejection and separation from their parents. Our focus is on nurturing and loving them back into wholeness, as best as we can. Whether it be providing an ice-cream or taking them out to a movie, we want them to enjoy life just as other children do! Even though physiotherapy and early sensory training are extremely critical for their development, we never underestimate the role of socializing, which contributes to their psychological and mental wellbeing too. So, we take them out regularly to places of worship, the beach, public parks, and places where they get to meet other children and adults. Under supervision, they are encouraged to play daily at the local playground.

Not only is this healthy for their bodies, encouraging them to better mobility, but the social interaction helps them adjust and carry themselves with confidence in public, while the public learn to accept and interact with them.

Here's a thought: If you're in or around this area, come on over and meet our children. Play with them, teach them something, laugh with them, get involved.
